Female Church Members in the Role of Pugilists. FORT SCOTT, KAS, October 27.—Quite a fracas occurred at Bethel church, about five miles southeast of this place, Sunday night. Sunday-school convention was being held voman, after exhausting the entire English vocabulary in hurling foul and vile epithets, came together and indulged in a genuine rough-and-tumble, which lasted for fully ten minutes. Biting, scratching and hair-pulling were the main features of the fight. The ady's husband was present, and wished to keep the parties separated, but the bystanders who had composed the congregation ob-jected, and insisted on the women fighting it out right then and there. When the fight denuded, and had little on besides their shoe and stockings. Their clothing had been torn into shreds and they were badly banged up and scratched. One of the leading lights in chool man went to Nevada, the county seat and filed complaints, upon which warrants for both women were issued. The sheriff of county arrested both parties and took them to Nevada, where they had a pre-liminary examination and were bound over for their appearance at the next term of the Antelope and Waupattits. Mrs. Meeker was district court. They procured bail and are now at large. The affair created considerable excitement, as both of the women are well connected and have passed for respectable people. The church is one of the finest country churches in the State, and is finely fin shed and furnished, and is capable of seating eight or nine hundred persons. The man undoubtedly died a horrible death. He is about twenty seven years old, five feet seven inches in hight, weighs about one hundred and thirty pounds, dark brown hair and a light brown mustache, and were at the time of his death a light brown coat, dark pants and vest and a dark brown test, He also had a bundle of old umbrellas. He was seen in town on yesterday evening. The coroner was notified thus morning, and held an inquest this evening. A verdict was rendered in accordance with the above facts. His name was not discovered, as nothing was found on his person to identify him. He is supposed to be from Louisville, Kentucky, and formerly a cabinet-maker.

Mrs. Geisler learned of this, and to on upraiding her husband, a stormy scene casued. The doctor then abandoned his wife, ensued. The doctor then abandoned his wife, and the latter employed a private detective to observe his movements. The detective, on the night of October 15th, found Dr. Geisler in bed with Mrs. Rosenick, and he was arrested on a warrant charging him with adultery. Mrs. Rosenick was taken into custody at the same time as a witness, and both were locked up in the Hoboken police station. Subsequently they were released on ball. Yesterday morning Dr. Geisler was notified that he had been indicted for adultery, and was called to appear in court to plead. In place of complying he sent a medical certificate to the effect that he was too ill to appear. After doing so he wrote his will, disposing of his property, and then took a heavy dose of mor-phine. N. Holmes, superintendent of the bridges; D. A. Adams, a telegraph operator; J. C. Mull, a brakeman, and the engineer and fireman. When near the lake, about two miles east of the city the engine suddenly sumped the track and turned over in the ditch. The fall threw young Adams into the tank-box, and he was instantly killed. Mr. Holmes was dreadfully scalded about the breast and head, and Mr. Mull was also badly scalded on different parts of the body. The Hannibal and St. Joe east-bound train passed by just before the accident occurred, and the train-hands saw the Rock Island engine fall into the ditch. Young Ladies' School AND KINDERGARTEN. MISS CLARA CONWAY ... PRINCIPAL Modern in Method. Thorough in Work Non-sectarian in Character.

The Principal of the school takes this method of saying to the people of Memphis, that RDUCATION, IN 175 ONE TRUE SENSE, is the object of her work, and that her school for girls is the result of a close and circular study of the best school systems and the best thought of the leading educators of the world. All false and injurious processes of artificial growth have been carefully avoided, and only such methods used as will secure a full, healthy and harmonious growth toward and into a trie womanly womanhood. As heretofore, Physical Culture will receive the attention its imputance demands. Education after the method of the Boston School of Oratory. Object lessons in the Frimary Department upon the plau defined by Prof. Goodale, of Harvagd University, and defined by Prof. Goodale, of Harvagd University, and defined by Prof. Goodale, of Harvagd University, and defined by Prof. Goodale, and French will be included in the Primary Course, and French in the line mediate. A thorough three-years course in English Literature, by extra work in the study of German and French swhors. three-years course in English Liferature, by extrivork in the study of German and French systems. The Principal of the school will give her percent attention to each department.

The RINDERGAETEN will be under the charg of Mrs. E. C. James, an accomplished graduate of the training-school of Mrs. A. B. Ogden, Number limited to twenty. As this is the only Rindergarted in Memphis, and as no parent should be willing to deprive a little one of this beautiful mental, more and physicial health giver, it is important that application for seats be made at once.

Pupils in all departments are expected to enter a the beginning of the term.
